Todi International Music Masters

Il festival Todi International Music Masters (TIMM) nasce nel 2014 da un'idea di Antonio Pompa-Baldi, pianista concertista e docente presso il Cleveland Institute of Music, che ne assume anche il ruolo di Direttore Artistico. Responsabile dell'orientamento artistico e didattico del festival, nonché della campagna di reclutamento e selezione dei giovani talenti che vi partecipano, Antonio Pompa-Baldi ne propone l'organizzazione a The Language Center nella persona del Dott. Stefania Belli. The Language Center diviene quindi l'ente organizzatore del festival, gestendolo logisticamente ed amministrativamente. Antonio Pompa-Baldi ricopre anche il ruolo di docente del festival, assieme a colleghi da lui scelti sulla base della loro assoluta eccellenza riconosciuta a livello internazionale. La prima edizione del festival vede la luce nell'estate del 2015, con esiti felicissimi e suscitando grande entusiasmo nei giovani talenti accorsi da tutto il mondo, nella città di Todi e, attraverso i social media, anche in tutto il mondo musicale in senso lato.

Il proposito del festival è quello di offrire a giovani pianisti classici di talento l'opportunità di confrontarsi con artisti concertisti di chiara fama internazionale, e di esibirsi in concerti pubblici, sia in recital che come solisti con orchestra. Il fine ultimo è quello di permettere a giovani pianisti di alto livello tecnico e musicale di perfezionare le loro abilità e giungere ad un livello di professionalità molto elevato, preparandoli al lancio di una carriera esigente.

Il confronto con i "masters" avviene attraverso lezioni individuali, nelle quali il maestro offre consigli preziosi per migliorare l'abilità dell'allievo a tutto tondo, curando sia dettagli tecnici sia interpretativi, per forgiare interpretazioni che permettano ai giovani di dominare i brani che eseguono, e proporli poi al pubblico catturandone l'attenzione, suscitando una più intensa partecipazione emotiva, e riscuotendone l'entusiastico consenso.

I maestri si preoccupano anche degli aspetti psicologici inerenti alla professione, mostrando agli allievi come superare ostacoli quali insicurezza, ed eccessiva emotività, accrescendone l'autostima e forgiandone la personalità artistica e non solo.

I maestri si esibiscono a loro volta in concerti pubblici, dimostrando anche fattivamente come mettere in pratica tutte le idee ed i suggerimenti forniti durante le lezioni.

Tutte le lezioni sono aperte all'intero pool di partecipanti, nonché ai loro maestri, che spesso li accompagnano. Ascoltare tutte le lezioni degli altri giovani partecipanti permette a ciascun allievo di immagazzinare una quantità di informazioni molto conspicua, enormemente maggiore di quanto potrebbe risultare dalla sola interazione diretta con i maestri. La combinazione di lezioni individuali, ascolto delle lezioni altrui, esibizione in pubblico, e ascolto dei concerti dei maestri, fa sì che le intere due settimane del festival diventino una esperienza significativa al punto da influenzare positivamente l'intera vita professionale dei partecipanti.

Non si può non enfatizzare inoltre l'importanza dell'offrire ai partecipanti al TIMM l'opportunità di suonare con un'orchestra. Potersi esibire con un complesso orchestrale è uno dei passi fondamentali per la maturazione di un giovane artista. Il problema è che queste opportunità sono rarissime, ed in genere arrivano troppo tardi nella formazione. Al TIMM noi permettiamo ai giovani di realizzare anche questa determinante esperienza, e per moltissimi di loro si tratta di un debutto assoluto.

Poiché tutti i concerti di allievi e docenti sono aperti al pubblico, il risultato è un festival che propone un'enorme quantità di capolavori della grande musica, eseguiti ad altissimo livello, offerti gratuitamente al pubblico della città di Todi e, attraverso social media, live streaming, e YouTube Channel del festival, a chiunque nel mondo voglia mettersi all'ascolto.

IL SALUTO DEL SINDACO

Dal 10 al 24 agosto 2016 torna in città il festival “Todi International Music Masters”, evento patrocinato da Regione Umbria e Comune di Todi.

Dopo il successo del 2015, che ha permesso a tanti giovani pianisti classici di talento provenienti da diverse parti del mondo di maturare un’esperienza formativa musicale di qualità, per due settimane, cinque pianisti di fama internazionale provenienti da altrettanti paesi e cinquanta studenti arrivati a Todi da nove nazioni saranno i protagonisti del ricco programma del festival, articolato in concerti, lezioni private e masterclass pubbliche.

Saluto con grande piacere partecipanti e docenti, dando loro un caloroso benvenuto.

Ringrazio particolarmente il Direttore artistico Antonio Pompa-Baldi, pianista concertista e docente presso il Cleveland Institute of Music e la scuola “The Language Center” di Stefania Belli, ideatori ed organizzatori della manifestazione.

Todi diventa, grazie a questa splendida occasione, luogo di formazione, di incontro tra grandi maestri e giovani allievi, di eccellenza, di studio, di approfondimento; sede privilegiata di concerti ed esibizioni offerti alla città, avvolta dal grande linguaggio unificante della musica.

La dimensione internazionale dell’evento e il suo valore, già testimoniato dall’attenzione guadagnata in importanti rassegne, ci fanno ben sperare per il futuro e per questo confermiamo fin d’ora la vicinanza dell’Amministrazione comunale alla manifestazione.

PROFESSOR

Alexander Korsantia

BIOGRAPHY

Dubbed “a major artist” by the Miami Herald and a “quiet maverick” by the Daily Telegraph, pianist Alexander Korsantia has been praised for the “clarity of his technique, richly varied tone and dynamic phrasing” (Baltimore Sun), and a “piano technique where difficulties simply do not exist” (Calgary Sun). The Boston Globe found his interpretation of Pictures of an Exhibition to be “a performance that could annihilate all others one has heard.” And the Birmingham Post gushed that “his intensely responsive reading was shot through with a vein of constant fantasy, whether musing or mercurial.” Ever since winning the First Prize and Gold Medal of the Artur Rubinstein Piano Master Competition and the First Prize at the Sidney International Piano Competition, Korsantia’s career has taken him to many of the world’s major concert halls, collaborating with renowned conductors such as Valery Gergiev, Gianandrea Noseda, and Paavo Jarvi and orchestras as the Chicago Symphony, Kirov Orchestra and Israel Philharmonic.

Recent and coming seasons bring him to the Cincinnati Symphony, Edmonton, Huntsville, Pacific, Louisville, Bogota, San Juan, Jerusalem, City of Birmingham, Oregon, Vancouver, Omaha, Elgin, Mannheim and Israel Symphony orchestras; Tokyo, Louisiana, Oslo, Malaga and Israel Philharmonic orchestras; Georgian Sinfonietta, Ingolstadt and Israel Chamber Orchestra, Jerusalem Camerata, Orchestre National du Capitole de Toulouse, RAI Orchestra in Turin, Polish Radio Orchestra, Orquesta Sinfonica Nacional in Mexico City among many others. He can be heard at Piano Jacobins concert series in Toulouse, Warsaw, Boston, Tel Aviv, Jerusalem, Vancouver, Calgary, San Francisco, Lodz, White Nights Festival in St. Petersburg, Tanglewood, Newport, Stresa, Gilmore, Verbier festivals and music series performing solo recitals and collaborating with musicians such as Yuri Bashmet, Vadim Repin and Sergei Nakoriakov among others. Bel Air Music and Piano Classics are among the recording labels Mr. Korsantia has worked with. The most recent release includes a collection of piano variations by Beethoven (Eroica), Rachmaninoff (Chopin) and Copland. Born in Tbilisi, Georgia, Alexander Korsantia began his musical studies at an early age with his mother, Svetlana Korsantia, and later became a pupil of Tengiz Amiredjibi, Georgia’s foremost piano instructor. In 1992, he moved his family to the United States and joined the famed piano studio of fellow Georgian, Alexander Toradze, at Indiana University in South Bend. In 1999, he was awarded one of the most prestigious national awards, the Order of Honor, bestowed on him by then-President Eduard Shevardnadze. Korsantia resides in Boston where he is a Professor of Piano on the faculty of the New England Conservatory. A veritable superstar in his country of birth, Mr. Korsantia is the artistic director of the annual music festival “From Easter to Ascension” in Georgia.

ORCHESTRA GIOVANILE NAPOLINOVA

Nel 2014 Alfredo de Pascale, presidente e direttore artistico dell'Associazione Napolinova, ha fondato, coinvolgendo nel progetto il direttore d'orchestra Mariano Patti, l'Orchestra Giovanile Napolinova attraverso regolari audizioni che hanno coinvolto più di 250 ragazzi da tutta Italia.

L'orchestra ha debuttato nel novembre 2014, riscuotendo subito grande successo per la qualità e la professionalità espressa, ottenendo recensioni dai più importanti quotidiani e servizi giornalistici da Rai e emittenti online.

Per il suo valore è stata invitata in importanti rassegne internazionali: il "Mozart Box" 2015, presso la Cappella Reale della Reggia di Portici, la XIX edizione del Festival Pianistico per il "Maggio dei Monumenti", la XVIII edizione dei "Concerti D'Estate a Villa Guariglia", il "TIMM" (Todi International Music Master).

Nel 2016 ha realizzato la sua prima stagione concertistica dal titolo "I giovani e l'Orchestra" che, a conferma della volontà di proporsi come entità regionale e nazionale, si è tenuta a Napoli, Caserta e Salerno. La stagione ha coinvolto solisti prestigiosi (Francesco Bossone, solista dell'Orchestra dell'Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia, l'oboista Fabio D'Onofrio, solista dei Wiener Akademie, il violinista Felice Cusano, docente e artista di fama internazionale) e il successo è stato ancora una volta grande, attirando l'interesse di critici, giornali e televisioni, con servizi su TG3 e su altre televisioni locali.

In particolare, la critica le ha riconosciuto qualità uniche e un ruolo di primo piano nel panorama campano, riconoscendo al progetto serietà e professionalità.

È possibile ascoltare molte delle esecuzioni dell'orchestra e visionare i servizi giornalistici su youtube digitando semplicemente Orchestra Giovanile Napolinova.

A riprova del successo riscosso in appena diciotto mesi di attività, la direzione del Teatro Bellini di Napoli, teatro storico e forse attualmente il teatro più vivo e attivo di Napoli, ha invitato l'orchestra a intraprendere un cammino comune, proponendo una vera stagione sinfonica per la stagione teatrale 2016/2017, presentata lo scorso 26 maggio insieme a tutti gli eventi in programma al Teatro.

Alla stagione che vedrà l'orchestra impegnata con il più importante repertorio sinfonico collaboreranno solisti quali Franco Mezzena, Francesco Bossone, Andrea Oliva, Giovanni Gnocchi, Simonide Braconi, Alessandro Carbonare, Giampaolo Stuani.
